A WORD FROM CHRIS...

February! Now we can settle into some sort of routine after the madness of Christmas and January holidays. I hope you had a wonderful festive season and are rejuvenated to take on 2010. I had a wonderful break with the family, based at home, taking day trips, 'new year cleaning' and settling in Elle, Claudine, Henny, Penny, Mrs T and Cocoa into their Chook hilton!

As always we are looking at ways that we can improve your service and experience here at Your Beauty and with this in mind it should be a big year!

We have something for everyone in this month's edition, with a Valentine's facial and massage special, Free Paramedical Skin Consultations, Make-up consultations, and to introduce our new team member Dachang, our new acrylic and gel nail specialist, an amazing special on nails.

We weren't thinking of adding any other people to our team (I think I made a similar statement when Kylie joined us) but when we saw the sensational nails and nail art that Dachang does we were convinced that you will love her work too.

Hope to see you taking care of yourself soon. Chris
